

Screech Owl is a rock n roll band pulling from American roots, based in Johnstown, PA.

They released their second EP, Don't You Follow Me Home, on July 19, 2025. The EP was recorded at Johnstown's VOMA, with engineering by Jon Beard and Micah, and mastered by Essential Machine's RJ Dietrich at Blue Sofa Studios. The release features six new originals from the band, ranging from one of their earliest songs to some of their most recent.

The band is Justin Giuffre on lead guitar and vocals; Mike Giuffre on keys; Micah Mood on drums and vocals; Ryan Stacy on bass; and Chris Verbano on rhythm guitar. They play and have played in a number of bands, but Screech Owl is a unique project for them as they strive to balance songcraft, melody, and the joy of plugging in and playing loud.

Don't You Follow Me Home is streaming now on all the well-known music streaming services, and is also available on compact disc, and at screechowlmusic.bandcamp.com
